

About the authors

Jakub Droździol - graduate of the Faculty of Law and Administration of the University of Silesia in Katowice. During his studies he was a member of the Scientific Circle of Public International Law and European Law Ius Gentium. He has been interested in the subject of public international law for many years. He currently works as an assistant judge.

Krzysztof Izak - retired officer of the Internal Security Agency.

Marcin Kośka, PhD Eng. - graduate of engineering and master's studies at the Military University of Technology in Warsaw, postgraduate studies at the National Defense Academy in Warsaw and doctoral studies at the Military Art Academy in Warsaw. Participated in domestic and international courses on security. His research interests include national and international security, crisis management, and terrorism.

Kamil Mrocza, PhD - Doctor of Social Sciences in Political Science. Assistant Professor at the Department of State Science and Public Administration of the Faculty of Political Science and International Studies of the University of Warsaw, Director General of the Polish Financial Supervision Authority, responsible among others for the area of cyber security of the financial market.

Monika Stachoń - graduated from the University of Warsaw, majoring in internal security. She also completed her undergraduate degree in Oriental Studies, with a specialization in Iranian Studies, at the same university. She is currently pursuing her doctoral degree at the UW School of Social Sciences. Her research interests include recent Iranian history.

Marek Świerczek, PhD - an officer of the Internal Security Agency.

Marcin Wielec, PhD - Deputy Dean of the Faculty of Law and Administration of Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw, Head of the Department of Criminal Proceedings of the Faculty of Law and Administration of CSWU, Director of the Justice Institute. Author and co-author of several books and many scientific articles on criminal procedure. Member of the Program and Scientific Council of the quarterly “Probacja”. Graduate of IESE Business School and the National School of Public Administration.

Michał Wojnowski, PhD - independent expert.